

The Re-victimization of Victims

“So, I don't understand how he is so righteous and how everyone is standing strongly with him to defend him, to defend his ministry. They see him as under attack just because I finally spoke. He is righteous and I am tainted. They see me as evil. I'm scared, mostly because I'm not always sure what is true. Does God see me the way they do? Is God against me? Is he angry that I can't forget? Is he angry that I haven't forgiven in some way that has allowed me to forget? I don't want to be broken anymore.”
