

How to Share Your Faith with Reveal

Hey, check out these images!

They reveal the pain and beauty of our world. Which piece stands out to you?... I'd love to hear your thoughts about this image and the Biblical quote it's connected to. Are you interested?

With an invitation like this, many students have shared the art and Revelation quotes in your hand with people who don't yet follow Jesus.

"A non-Christian student took a photo of the card, showed it to his Christian friend, and asked for help in exploring faith."

"I learned about my classmate's life story. She needed some reminder that Jesus is with her. I encouraged her to join our faith community on campus..."

WHAT YOU HAVE

- 4 conversation cards with questions for discussing art and Revelation.
- Exploring Faith card helps you learn where your friends are on their spiritual journey.
- The Big Story on the back of Exploring Faith helps you share the gospel and invite your friends to follow Jesus.

PUT IT TOGETHER

- Invite your friends to look at the art with you.
- Use the conversation questions to discuss one image and quote. Follow the prompt to The Big Story.
- Ask your friends if they'd like to follow Jesus. If they're not ready, discuss the 5 Steps to Exploring Faith, and invite them to take a next step.

5 TIPS FOR A GREAT EVANGELISTIC CONVERSATION

- Participate! Share your own struggles, failures, hopes—and how Jesus is shaping your journey. You'll need to reflect on each question beforehand so that you're ready to share.
- Be prayerful. Ask Jesus to meet your friend. Be open to the Holy Spirit's leading in the moment.
- Listen well and show that you care. Nod, smile, thank them for sharing, and appreciate their insights. Be a fellow learner!
- Encourage deeper conversation. Say "tell me more about that" to help them share more.
- You don't have to know it all. You can say "I don't know, let's look into that together." You also don't have to agree with every comment. It's a dialogue, not a debate.
