Demystifying Spiritual Warfare
Tammy Gonzaga
Normalize the spiritual world

Make spiritual warfare part of our normal spiritual practices.
How do you imagine the spiritual battle?
Where the battle begins
Cleaning with no “exchange” puts us in a spiritually vulnerable position.

Matt. 12:43–45 "Now when the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it roams through waterless (dry, arid) places in search of rest, but it does not find it. 44 Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when it arrives, it finds the place unoccupied, swept, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and make their home there. And the last condition of that man becomes worse than the first. So will it also be with this wicked generation."

Jeremiah 6:14 They have healed also the hurt of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

Authority

‘Our authority, then, is the God-given right to receive and use God’s power that flows from the indwelling Holy Spirit”
Charles Kraft
1 Jn. 3:20,21 For God is greater than our worried hearts and knows more about us than we do ourselves. And friends, once that’s taken care of and we’re no longer accusing or condemning ourselves, we’re bold and free before God! We’re able to stretch our hands out and receive what we asked for because we’re doing what he said, doing what pleases him.
The biggest battle is accepting His great love for us
